The Daily Quote

"This was supposed to be the week when House Republicans adopted a budget blueprint for the coming fiscal year and proved they could end the dysfunction in Washington. Instead, they will adjourn Wednesday for a two-week-plus Easter recess with little to show for their efforts. When they return to work April 12, they will have only four days left to adopt a budget by the statutory deadline of April 15. While House leaders hope to use the recess to get a deal by then, the signs so far haven't been promising."
